

BUSINESS MANAGER

Spurgeon's College is seeking to appoint a Business Manager who, working with the academic faculty, support staff and volunteers, will:

- share in the leadership and strategic development of the College
- ensure the business of the College is carried forward effectively and professionally
- support its mission by heading a diverse team across a number of disciplines, including administration, communications, finance, site management, commercial activities, marketing and fundraising

Applicants for this key position will have demonstrable leadership, senior management, financial and people skills and experience in managing change.

The College is involved in forming the next generation of Christian leaders. Do you have the strategic insight and entrepreneurial flair to play a part in shaping the future?
